

A close-up photograph of a single, vibrant red rose. The petals are tightly packed and show a rich, deep red color with some lighter, almost white, variegation on the edges. The rose is set against a dark, out-of-focus background of green leaves, which appear to be part of the same plant. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the petals.

Exodus 12:22 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.
