

2nd Samuel 19:23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him.

A close-up photograph of a flower bed. In the center, there is a large, dense cluster of bright red flowers, possibly Dahlias. To the right of the red flowers, there are several yellow flowers with dark yellow centers, likely Petunias. The flowers are set against a dark, textured background that appears to be soil or mulch. The lighting is bright, highlighting the colors of the flowers.
