

A close-up photograph of a single, vibrant red rose in full bloom. The petals are layered and show some natural texture and slight variations in color, from deep red to a hint of pink. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting foliage. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font, centered horizontally and spanning most of the vertical space.

Jeremiah 36:32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.
