

A close-up photograph of a plant with small, vibrant purple flowers and bright green, oval-shaped leaves. The plant is growing against a dark, textured background, possibly a stone wall. The lighting is bright, creating a high-contrast scene with some areas of the leaves and flowers in sharp focus and others blurred.

1st Corinthians 06:05 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?
