

A serene landscape featuring a calm body of water, likely a lake or pond, with gentle ripples. In the background, several large, modern houses with brown roofs are nestled among lush green trees. The foreground is dominated by tall, green reeds and grasses, some with small yellow flowers. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

Revelation 15:03 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.
