

A close-up photograph of a vibrant red flower, likely a gerbera, with several large, overlapping petals. The petals have a rich, saturated red color and a slightly textured surface. The background is softly blurred, showing more of the flower and some green foliage. The lighting is bright, highlighting the natural curves and veins of the petals.

Ecclesiastics 08:08 There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.
