

A close-up photograph of a dense cluster of red maple leaves and green cedar branches. The red maple leaves are vibrant and have a distinct five-lobed shape. The green cedar branches are interspersed among the red leaves, providing a sharp contrast in color. The background is slightly blurred, showing more foliage and a hint of a building structure.

Micah 06:01 Hear ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.
