

1st Corinthians 12:05 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

A close-up photograph of a vibrant pink rose. The rose is in full bloom, showing multiple layers of petals with a gradient of pink colors, from light pink to deep magenta. The petals have a delicate, slightly ruffled texture. The rose is attached to a green stem with several green leaves visible in the background. The background is out of focus, showing a grey stone wall and more green foliage.
